

Dalkeith CAB

Privacy Notice

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Dalkeith & District Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) is a registered Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). Our registration number is Z692996X.
- 1.2 This Privacy Notice describes how we collect and process the personal data of people who engage with our Bureau. It also explains people's rights and how to contact us.
- 1.3 Please send any questions about how we use personal information to bureau@dalkeithcab.org.uk.

2. About Us

- 2.1 Citizens Advice Bureaux in Scotland along with Citizens Advice Scotland form Scotland's largest independent advice network. We are charities working across Scotland. Our advice is available to everyone and is free, independent, confidential and impartial. We also advocate for changes to legislation and social policy that will improve people's circumstances locally and across Scotland.
- 2.2 The Bureau is a member of the Scottish Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux (operating as Citizens Advice Scotland or CAS), a network of 59 individual Citizens Advice Bureaux. Bureaux use a case management system called CASTLE and are Joint Controllers for the personal data held on systems managed by CAS. You can find more information on the CAS Privacy Notice.

 - 4.1.9 when you make a donation to us, including through fundraising sites, such as JustGiving
- 4.2 We use social media to raise awareness of our services and promote our impact, and we are occasionally contacted this way with queries. To protect your personal information, we encourage you to contact us via other methods and we will seek agreement from you to transfer your personal information from social media to our systems.

5. How we use your information

- 5.1 We may use your information to:
- 5.1.1 Contact you to support with your enquiry and explain how we can help
 - 5.1.2 Keep a record of our conversations and actions to inform your advice and support needs
 - 5.1.3 Support you in accessing our services, such as through British Sign Language or interpretation services
 - 5.1.4 Keep records for audit, standards, and insurance purposes
 - 5.1.5 Share information with other organisations, such as for referrals
 - 5.1.6 Report statistics or anonymised case studies to funders

- 5.1.7 Develop and improve our services
 - 5.1.8 Manage donations
 - 5.1.9 Send communications
 - 5.1.10 Ask for your feedback on our services
- 5.2 We may also use your data to monitor the issues that are impacting the people we help. This informs our work advocating for changes to legislation and social policy. We do this through data analysis; however, we may use your experiences to inform our case studies. These will be anonymised. Occasionally we may ask to share your story to bring awareness to an issue, we will only do this when you have given consent.

6. Our lawful basis for using your information

- 6.1 We only process your personal data when there is a lawful basis for us doing so. We may rely upon:
- 6.1.1 legitimate interests, such as for maintaining records of advice and support, to defend legal claims, and to maintain a high-quality service
 - 6.1.2 public task, when we are delivering a statutory service
 - 6.1.3 legal obligation, when we need to process your data to meet a legal obligation
 - 6.1.4 your consent, such as when we contact you for feedback or refer you to another support organisation
- 6.2 Where we process special category data (such as health information), we may rely upon:
- 6.2.1 substantial public interest conditions
 - 6.2.2 defence of legal claims
 - 6.2.3 archiving, research and statistics
 - 6.2.4 your explicit consent
- 6.3 When relying on substantial public interest conditions in Schedule 1 Part 2 of the DPA 2018 we are required to have an Appropriate Policy Document in place. (Add link to DCAB policy)

7. Who we share your information with

- 7.1 We only share your personal data when necessary and in line with data protection laws.
- 7.1.1 if we need to share your information with CAS or other Bureaux
 - 7.1.2 with professional advisors such as insurers and legal professionals
 - 7.1.3 with auditors to maintain standards, such as for CAS Membership Standards audits, or with the Scottish Legal Aid Board (SLAB) for Scottish National Standards accreditation

- 7.1.4 with funders as part of audit and compliance, or for research and reporting purposes. We anonymise this where possible
- 7.1.5 to meet any legal and regulatory obligations
- 7.1.6 If we use external service providers, we put in place contracts to ensure they follow data protection rules
- 7.2 We may share information with the following, only when you have consented:
 - 7.2.1 If we refer you to another organisation for support
 - 7.2.2 If someone is acting on your behalf, we may share your information with them when necessary
 - 7.2.3 If we engage with an organisation on your behalf, we may have to share information with them
 - 7.2.4 with funding partners to obtain feedback on our service provision
 - 7.2.5 with HMRC if you make a Gift Aid declaration as part of your donation
- 7.3 In exceptional circumstances, where there is a high risk of harm to an individual, information may be shared with third parties. We have strict Safeguarding procedures in place for when this may occur.

8. Will we share your information outside of the UK?

- 8.1 We only store personal data in the UK or the EU.
- 8.2 However, some of our suppliers may be based in other countries. If we need to share your data with these companies, we take steps to make sure your data is protected.

9. How long we keep your information

- 9.1 We will only keep your data for as long as is necessary. For most people we keep your data for a maximum of seven years. This is from the point of last contact. We keep recordings of phone calls for two years.
- 9.2 In certain circumstances we are required to keep records for longer, for example, if you have arranged a debt remedy solution, your records are kept for the duration this is active.
- 9.3 In rare cases, we might keep your data for longer if there is a legal reason, such as an on-going complaint or legal case.

10. Citizens Advice Scotland “National Projects”

- 10.1 These are projects delivered by Bureaux across the Citizens Advice Network and managed by CAS. Where you seek support from one of these projects, you may receive advice from an adviser based in a Bureaux somewhere else in Scotland. The Pensionwise project has its own Privacy Notice here www.moneyhelper.org.uk/en/about-us/privacy-notice.

11. Your rights

11.1 You have rights over your personal data. Your query may be passed to the CAS Data Protection Team to resolve.

11.2 You can:

11.2.1 Request a copy of your personal information

11.2.2 Ask us to update anything that's no longer accurate

11.2.3 Request that we delete your personal data. There are some exceptions, and we may need to keep some of your data, for example to defend legal claims

11.2.4 Object to how we use data in some situations

11.2.5 Withdraw your consent

11.3 We do not use any automation or profiling to make decisions.

11.4 If you're unhappy with how we have handled your data, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office by visiting www.ico.org.uk.
